NEW YORK, MAY 5 (AP)-NBC'S NEWS DEPARTMENT PUT A TITILLATING TITLE, "THE SCIENCE OF SPYING," ON LAST NIGHT'S SPECIAL PROGRAM. IT NO DOUBT CAUSED MANY VIEWERS TO ANTICIPATE THAT A REAL MAN FROM U. N. C. L. E. OR A JAMES BOND TYPE WOULD DESCRIBE HIS ADVENTURES IN STEALING PLANS OR BREAKING CODES.

IF SO, THEY WERE QUICKLY DISABUSED BY NARRATOR JOHN CHANCELLOR WHO SAID THE SPYING BUSINESS HAS GONE A LONG WAY SINCE MATA HARI AND "THE DAGGER IS REPLACING THE CLOAK."

AFTER THAT, THE PROGRAM PRIMARILY WAS DEVOTED TO INTERVIEWS ABOUT ACTIVITIES OF THE U. S. CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY.

FORMER CIA DIRECTOR ALLEN DULLES DEFENDED THE AGENCY'S WORK AND ALSO EXPRESSED ADMIRATION FOR RUSSIAN INTELLIGENCE. HE CALLED ITS OPERATION IN CZECHOSLOVAKIA "A CLASSIC," AND SAID ITS CUBAN WORK WAS "MARVELOUS."

OUR CIA DIFFERS IN ITS OPERATION, HE SAID ALMOST CASUALLY, BECAUSE "AS FAR AS I KNOW, WE DON'T ENGAGE IN ASSASSINATION AND KIDNAPPINGS AND THINGS LIKE THAT."

CHANCELLOR ALSO TALKED WITH RICHARD BISSELL, CIA DIRECTOR OF PLANS, AND SEN. EUGENE MCCARTHY, D-MINN., WHO QUESTIONED THE MORALITY OF SOME CIA OPERATIONS.

CHANCELLOR TO THE CONTRARY, THERE IS STILL PLENTY OF CLOAK WRAPPED AROUND THE CIA AND IT WAS NOT REMOVED LAST NIGHT.
